

Germany

Population: Over 81 million (2017)

Capital City: Berlin

Language: German, Dutch, Low German, Low Rhenish, Sorbian, Romany, North Frisian, Saterland Frisian

The most common languages not native to the country are: Turkish, Kurdish, Polish, Balkan languages, Russian

Continent: Europe

Currency: Euro

Government: Federal constitutional parliamentary republic

National Day: 3 October (German Unity Day)

Religion: Mainly Christian

Famous Germans: Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Albert Einstein, Marlene Dietrich, Martin Luther, Johannes Gutenberg, Friedrich Nietzsche, Brothers Grimm, Sophie Scholl, Wilhelm Röntgen, Ludwig Van Beethoven

Flag:

Climate:

Four seasons (spring, summer, autumn and winter).

Winters can get cold, with heavy snowfall, especially in the mountain regions. Summers can get very warm, with temperatures over 30°C.

Interesting Information:

After WWII, Germany was divided into two states, West and East Germany. The country was reunified in 1990.